TAG "Truth About Gangs"
Anti-Bullying Presentations
Drug & Alcohol Awareness Seminars
Professional Development Workshops
Youth Sports Camps

What Post-Questionnaire surveys say about Steered Straight Presentations:

- 6 in 10 students talked about the presentation with a parent afterward
- More than 90% of students reported a more negative view of drugs, alcohol and gangs than they did before the presentation
- More than 80% of students surveyed stated that they had a better understanding of consequences related to involvement in drugs, gangs or criminal activity, further indicating that they are much more severe than they thought prior to the presentation
- More than 90% of students surveyed reported that they had little or very little understanding of the criminal consequences to bullying before the presentation
- 3 in 10 students stated that they would report bullying to a staff member prior to the presentation, 7 in 10 students would report bullying to a staff member after viewing the presentation
- 4 in 10 students discussed seminar topics with teachers/staff after the presentation.

These results are evidence about what students will gain from these presentations:

- Better understanding about consequences and rewards
- More identifiable assemblies from real-life messengers
- Message resonates long after the assemblies and presentations are over

Our seminars and presentations encourage youth to communicate and get direction from a parent or responsible adult.
